CONGRESS TS BUSY the 'pain, a sense of geneness more permament than the new hole is the jaw. Sadden loss of confidence conveys an unpleasant shock to the feedings. It is not necessary to thus deceived. It is not necessary to thus deceived in it is not necessary to open half syear in grb and tom-foolery cobates in order that affairs may get so had that the nation will be content to have something done, have insuited the logalty of the country, have misappreciated its earridees, its nobleness of purpose, and can best be purlained by being severely let alons when nominations come abound again. It would give us pleasire could we write otherwise, but we believe that Congress has falled to answer the plainest demands of the erials. Mr. Morrill, with great ingennounness, gives us the reason for which we thank him, though this crewing insuit will open a great in my eyes. The vary footing of our last year's revenue statistics presented a case for action which the humblest bundless man in the country could not fall to appreciate, viz, that the revenue from leans was $176,583,501, and from taxes $111,850,750. This was manifestly a top-heavy mode of going floors, which ought to have been rectified as quickly as possible. But after sitting nearly five months, Congress is preparing a tax bill. It this worthy of our representatives, and are the AT LAST. The House Progressing With the Tax Bill.

PATTIMENT OF A PARTICIPATION IN THE DEPARTIE.

We have seen and conversed with a guithman just arrived from Fort Pillow, a temporary resident there, not connected with the
the army, but who took past in the gallant defense of the Fort. From his statement, ao doubt truthful in every respect, the horrors of that day were even more terrible than first reports seemed to Budieste. The first assault wounded men were brought in and a hospital was established.

At two o'clock on the morning of the 8th, the let brigate of our 'Division—composed of the 1900 Ky. '77th Ilu. 280 Wis., and the 67th Ind., numbering about 1,500 men—was started in advance, and by daylight commenced shirmish ng with the enemy. We—the Chicago Mercantille battery—started at daybreak with the 2d brigade and the 3d division numbering about 3,600 or 3,000 men. COMMERCIAL. a cecassion of all hostile operations. For a quickly and secretly gathered his division is close proximity to the fort, and so protected that it was impossible to reach them effects ally with its guns, or in any way to severely damage him. When he had got his men is proper position, in demanded of Mai Brad. We are told by the Missouri Democras use under the tan years' ordinance in force the condition of the blacks who cannot got away is very far from being improved. Their ser-vices being curtailed to a limited period, there is the natural disposition on the part, of masters, who wish to resilise all of pootle possible, to get the greatest amount of ser-vice at the least expense, and to have the edge of the opposite woods, and had just got in battery when we heard a terrible yell and saw a line of rebels, unbroken, changing on our exhausted men, who had been stirmish cates doe. When he had got his men in proper position, he demanded of Mai, Bradiota for an immediate response to his demand for a surrender. Mai, Bradford replied that if he wanted the fort he must dome and take it. The assuall was immediately made, and was of the most desperate character. The enemy soon gained entraspea, and the little garrison at once overpowered. When this took place our men immediately threw down their arms, and order out that they down their arms, and order out that they down their arms, and order out that they down those arms and order out that they down to commenced an indiscriminate shooting. The most seeing that they were to have no quarter, rushed over the rear of the fort and down the steep precipics is want the river. The robust poured down toward the river. The robust poured down toward the river. The robust poured for it in mamagine numbers, completely beauming in the poor of masters, who wish to restlise all of posts possible, to get the greatest amount of sorvice at the tesst supunes, and to have the tesst regard for sheer fature comion and walfare.

The truth is, it is better when once the abolition of alavery is resolved on, to wind it up as soon as possible. Gradualism is no banefit to the alave, but a curse to slave and master both. Its crits are only aggravated by spinulog them out. Miryland is upon the right track.

THE SWORD CONTEST.*

A very ridiculous contest has been inaugumenta nutil our men had passed as, and commenta nutil our men had passed as, and commenced firing on the rebel fines; but could not stop their progress; and we soon received orders from Col. Landrum to Hinber up and leave, if we ever expected to get our guas off. Two of our horses had been shot, but we forced them across the field, and took up another position in the edge of the timber, firing again on the rebel times, which we could see, with great distinctiness, crossing the field on the double quick.

Here Gen. Kansom was shot in the knee, and was obliged to leave the field. Lient. Throop was delied by the windage of a shell, which greated his shotmen. Gen. Banks was here, trying to rally the cavalry, which we he was been great disorder. The bugiers wounded the nelly, —a sound that Lahali never forget—and a new time was formed; but in a few moments both sur fainks were curract, and we were obliged to limber up and refire a short distance. Here another line was formed, and a few more shots deflivered.

By this time the rebels were on both of our ranks and firing across us in every direction. We got our places into the road, and began to retreat, when a scene of great confusion consider. He was fired to the rear, and, each man trying to excape on his own hook, and the road so blocked up that it was an impossibility for any thing to move. Our run was next to the rear place, and fired ones of the hala shots that was fixed by the artilliery. When the reliefs got within two rods of us, we received because the commenced spiking his gun, and was segment at the post. Whether he was wounded or not, I common tall.
